

A Minute on Monday

Today's minute is compliments of Mrs. Lisa Frazier.....

You See Me

Oh Father, when days are long and life is rough,
I need a faith that's strong and tough.
So show me in your word so true,
how will I make it, what shall I do?
I find no comfort in this world I live,
but the only peace to be found is what you give.
What I need to know is do you see me and hear my cry?
'Cause if you don't I shall surely die.
Look to Hagar I hear you say,
she was despised and used in a horrible way.
Yet her solace came not by miracle or might,
but simply by the knowledge she had not escaped your sight.
Oh I too want to share in her truthful plea,
"I have seen the God who I know sees me!"
Then you called my attention to the woman at the well,
and what a strange testimony she had to tell.
One who was so needy she'd gone from man to man,
realizing that you knew all she'd done was part of the plan.
Of course I have to identify with Adam and Eve,
when sin is present your grace is available, I must receive.
When there are times I seem to have lost it all,
I must look at Job and simply have to recall.
That suffering comes to us all at some dark hour,
and when I stand the test you restore me with your great power.
Even when the cupboards are bare and finances are few,
like the widow of Zarapheth obedience will show me what you can do.
Even in your temple when I've given and done all I can do,
like the widows mite it doesn't slip past your recording view.
And when I'm insecure and feel forsaken,
you see me like you did Gideon and you are never mistaken.
Though the body is fear stricken and the mind is weak,
I can't hid anywhere your eyes will not seek.
So what do I learn from these lessons so dear?
That I trust the God who sees me and is always near.

*"Then she called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, Have I also here seen Him who sees me?"
Genesis 16:13*

Have a blessed week.
