

A Minute on Monday

April 13, 2010

By Terri Wright

"Seek the Lord and His strength...." Psalm 105:4

That was one of the verses I read this morning. Out of the three I read, this one really jumped out at me, especially the word seek.

Webster's definition of seek = to resort to; go to
to go in search of: look for
to try to discover to ask for: request
to try to acquire or gain
to make an attempt

I had to search my heart. Do I seek the Lord and His strength? Below is my prayer this morning that I wrote in my journal.

*Dear Lord,
Help me today to seek You in ALL I do. So often I know You are near, because You promised You would never leave me, but too often Lord that seems to be enough for me. Forgive me! Teach me to seek You! Give me a desire to seek You! To go to You! To search for You when I can't see You. To look for You in all things. To discover more about You. To ask You about everything. To strive to acquire and gain more knowledge about You. To make an attempt to know You more.
Terri*

Are you seeking Him and His strength?

Have a blessed day!
Terri