

A Minute on Monday

By Terri Wright

March 1, 2010

After waking up Saturday morning and hearing of another devastating earthquake, this time in Chile, a song kept going over in my mind.

Lord I'm ready.
Now I'm waiting for your triumphant return.
You're coming soon.
This world has nothing for me.
I find my peace and joy solely in you.
Only in you,
I want the world to see that you're alive and living well in me.
Let me be a part of the harvest for the days are few.
He's coming soon
those who do not know they will hear "depart, I knew you not."
For my friends you see,
there will be a day when we'll be counted so know him well.
So people, get ready. Jesus is coming.
Soon we'll be going home.
People get ready
Jesus is coming to take from the world his own.
As sung by Crystal Lewis.

I sang that chorus over and over that morning. "People get ready, Jesus is coming, soon we'll be going home...."

How about you? Are you ready? How about your loved ones? Are they ready?

Many signs point to Christ's soon return. I wonder, "Do we take them seriously? Do we really believe He is coming soon? I mean, really believe!"

"Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

Luke 22:28

Ready yourselves! We must stay faithful; we must stay busy in His work. We must stay in His word. Jesus is coming soon.
